ST. JOHN'S DAY IN YALE.

Appropriate Services Conducted Under the Auspices of Brockway Lodge, 316, F. & A. M.

The Masonic craft of Yale did themselves proud in their entertainment on St. John's day. Masonic entertainments are usually very successful and pleasant affairs, but this last one, in the estimation of those who participated in it, surpassed all previous entertainments. Fully a hundred members of the craft with their wives and daughters and a goodly number of invited guests assembled in the hall soon after high twelve, and after listening to the rendering of some choice music by the Brockway choir, with Miss Mabel Moore as organist, were then treated to a fine piece of oratory by the Rev. Joshua Stansfield, of Port Huron, which was highly appreciated by every one present, and more especially by the craft who alone could understand the hidden allusions to the secret working of the order, and who enjoyed it so much the more on account of the delicate manner in which the secret and sacred things were handled before a mixed audience. Bro. Stansfield has made a host of friends in Yale and should he visit Brockway Lodge, No. 329, at any time in the future he can be sure of a right royal welcome.

Dr. Mitchell, Past Worshipful Master, then installed the new officers, after which the company sat down to a banquet, as dainty a one as ever was set before a king, and the company was equal to the occasion, for the way the oysters and turkeys disappeared showed how keenly it was enjoyed and also reflected great credit on Mrs. Sligh, who did the cooking just right.

More music, pleasant and sociable chat, all around, then "Auld Lang Syne" finished up a day long to be remembered and hoped for many more of the same kind.

A Letter to Marshal Emery.

You Should Get It.

Should get what? Why, The Rev. Irl. Hicks' splendid Almanac for 1895. He has kindly sent to this office a copy of the same, and we speak advisedly in saying that it is a rare publication—the very latest and best of all that has emanated from the pen and brain and heart of this well known friend of the public. The history of this man's work—now an open book to all America—and a casual glance at his Almanac for 1895, convinces us that this vitally useful and instructive book ought to find its way into every shop, store, office and home in the land. The price of the book—only 25 cents—could not to our knowledge be invested for any one thing more profitably. It contains 84 pages, printed on fine book paper, with elegant covers in colors. It is for sale by all newsdealers. This fine Almanac is given as a premium to every yearly subscriber of the Rev. Irl. Hicks' well-known and deservedly popular paper, Word and Works. This unique journal is a peerless educator of the masses, and is fast becoming a household guardian and necessity in the homes of America. Those who want to keep up with all the advanced thought of the age in science, religion and all social, commercial, intellectual and domestic subjects, should subscribe for Word and Works. Subscription only $1.00 a year. You can send for both direct to Word and Works Publishing Co., St. Louis, Missouri.

Common Council.

STATEMENT OF INTENTION TO FORM A

Fire Insurance Company for St. Clair and Sanilac Counties.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, the farmers of St. Clair and Sanilac counties, State of Michigan, desire a reliable home insurance company, and believing that such a company may be formed from among the farmers of said counties, who have placed farm property on the "Prohibited List," and the few stock companies that do write farm property have advanced their rates so high, and have placed so many restrictions on what they do write that it is impossible to get insurance on a large amount of farm property.

Therefore, we believe it to be for the best interests of the farmers of said counties to form a Mutual Fire Insurance Company on the Stock Plan of paying premiums in advance.

To All Whom It May Concern Be It Known that we: William Hodgins, of Brockway township; Daniel Foley, of Emmet township; James E. Lutz, of Brockway township; E. R. Noble, of Yale village; Albert Lutz, of Greenwood township; all of St. Clair county, Mich.; and Thomas Grimes, of Spenser township; John Mathews, of Fremont township; and Joseph Galbraith, of Worth, all of Sanilac county, Mich., do hereby associate together and form an incorporated company under and by virtue of chapter 132 of Howell's Annotated Statutes of Michigan, for the purpose of mutual insurance of the persons who shall become members of the company against loss by fire or damage by lightning, which property to be insured may embrace school houses, literary and grange halls, churches, agricultural society buildings, dwellings, houses, barns and accompanying outbuildings and their contents, farm implements, hay, grain and other products, live stock, wagons, carriages, harness, household goods, wearing apparel, provisions, musical instruments, and libraries, being upon farms as farm property, or dwellings and accompanying outbuildings and their contents as the charter and by-laws of said company may provide, and belonging to members of said company.

This Company shall be known as the Michigan Farmers' Fire Insurance Company, and shall do business in the counties of St. Clair and Sanilac, State of Michigan, and the principal office for the transaction of business shall be located in the Village of Yale, St. Clair county, Michigan.

The opinion is rapidly gaining ground that a remedy which has proved efficient in the hands of the skillful practitioner, a remedy prepared by him as the result of years of observation and experience, for the treatment of disease in individual cases, may if placed by the same practitioner within the reach of the reading public, be instrumental in curing many who otherwise have remained ignorant of it.
